Hong Kong Council of Volunteering

Hong Kong Council of Volunteering (HKCOV) is a joint committee established by AVS in 2004, with a view to building a cross-sectoral platform for the exchange and collaboration to cultivate broader participation in volunteering. It serves to advise on the promotion and development of volunteerism in Hong Kong, to consider measures conducive to a favourable environment of volunteering, and to review the international development of volunteering and Hong Kong's participation in such development. Currently, the HKCOV has 20 member organisations.

Professional Volunteer Service Accreditation Programme (PVSA)

Introduced in 2005 by AVS together with HKCOV and its member organisations, the Programme encourages professionals and senior executives to share their expertise in volunteering. Over the years, Association of Hong Kong Nursing Staff, International Chamber of Commerce - Hong Kong, The Hong Kong Dental Association, The Hong Kong Institute of Architects, The Hong Kong Institute of Planners, The Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors, The Hong Kong Institution of Engineers and The Law Society of Hong Kong have implemented PVSA to recognise their members' active contributions.
