

STIR UP · STUDENT VOLUNTEERING IMPACT

A group of approximately eight children are standing in a line on a sandy, unpaved ground. They are dressed in casual, everyday clothing, including t-shirts, shorts, and skirts. Some children are holding small plastic cups, and one is holding a spoon. The background shows a rural environment with trees, a wooden fence, and a building with a corrugated metal roof. A semi-transparent yellow banner is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text "What to Do?".

來越來越熱門的公益旅行（volunteer tourism）有時也被稱為「志工旅行」、「益旅遊」或「責任旅遊」。主要是將旅遊跟志工服務，或是公益活動相結合。對旅行者來說，可以擁有比傳統旅遊更深入的體驗，對於在地組織來說，也可作為資源或協助的管道之一。然而，這樣聽來美好的多贏局面，是否這麼容易實現？我們可以來看看，近年來公益旅行在柬埔寨造成了什麼問題？

'In "worst cases" these children are "RENTED"  or even "BOUGHT"  from their families because they are perceived to be of more value to their families by earning money pretending to be a poor orphan than studying and eventually graduating from school.'

義工製造「孤兒」？

"The influx of unchecked travellers means that the children are put at risk of CHILD ABUSE, TRAFFICKING, ATTACHMENT ISSUE, or being used as FUNDRAISING TOOL."
